Terms of Participation:

By registering for the 3rd Rottal Chess Open 2019, the participant accepts the following terms and conditions:

1. By registering for the tournament, the player acknowledges the sanctioning authority of the organizer regarding gross violations of the principles of sporting, fair competition and gross violations of Article 12 of the FIDE Rules.
2. Players who have been barred from participation in tournaments by the German Chess Association or by its regional associations or who have been excluded from chess competitions due to their behaviour will not be eligible to participate.
3. In the case of manipulation of results by using illegal means, the player submits to the sanctioning force and the procedure before the arbitration of the German Chess Association (or its subordinate bodies) in accordance with its statutes. The player agrees with the registration that the data and tournament results gathered on the occasion of the tournament are used by the relevant authorities for the determination of the DWZ and the FIDE rating, as well as games, photos, tournament data, game reports and the like will be published. The player can revoke his consent to this at any time by notifying the undersigned (email: patrick.bensch@t-online.de).
4. By registering for the tournament, participants accept the rules and regulations of FIDE as binding. The official regulations are available on the Internet at www.fide.com/fide/handbook.html.
